

10 Reasons why Leading is like Sex

1. The first time you do it you will be nervous, afraid of making mistakes and fearful of disappointing others.
2. You can read about it all you want, but until you actually do it, you have no idea of what it is actually like.
3. People will not expect you to be perfect the first time.
4. It helps if you have an experienced partner to advise you if you get into difficulties.
5. Once you have done it a few times, everything becomes easier, less daunting and more enjoyable.
6. After a few goes at it you wonder why you ever had misgivings about it in the first place.
7. Even if you have been doing it for ages, you should review your performance from time to time.
8. You should look for new things to do or say which will add more interest to the whole experience.
9. No matter how good you are, some people will inevitably be disappointed.
10. You can please some of the people all of the time, and all of the people some of the time, but you can't please all of the people all of the time.
